Local Author Launches Award-Winning Book At 4th Annual Los Angeles Organizing Expo

Inland Empire Author, Sheila G. McCurdy, CPO ®, an expert on Chronic Disorganization, launches her award-winning 2nd Edition book, The Floor is Not an Option!, on Monday, September 22, 2008. This event will be held at the 4th Annual Los Angeles Organizing Expo put on by the National Association of Professional Organizers, Los Angeles Chapter, held at the Olympic Collection on Olympic and Sawtelle in Los Angeles, CA.

This book travels through every hidden corner of your home to unravel the mystery of clutter. This is the only book that speaks to people with brain functions impaired in some way that affects their ability to organize. It will help those with ADD, dyslexia, hoarding and mild traumatic brain injuries. However, it is for everyone in that it is “The only book bringing release from guilt over clutter...and hope to anyone wanting a clutter-free life.”

McCurdy is not just another author writing about organizing; she herself has ADD and dyslexia. Through diligent study and personal striving, she has become an advocate and coach for persons with these disorders. She is a Certified Professional Organizer (CPO)®, Certified ADHD Coach, Author and Speaker.
